ATTORNEY

Jenny works in Smith Haughey's business and real estate group.

She has been practicing in West Michigan since 2010 and has a particular interest in correcting chain of title defects. Jenny has broad experience providing counsel with respect to wills, trusts, estate administration, guardianships and conservatorships, litigation, real property issues, and businesses. She represents both individual and corporate clients. She values strong client relationships and believes they're the foundation of excellent legal counsel and advocacy.

Jenny has a Juris Doctorate from Michigan State University College of Law and a bachelor's degree in business administration from Ferris State University. She invests in her community and has an active involvement with the Holland Museum and the Holland Chorale. Previously, she was a business mentor through SCORE of Holland.

Jenny blends the needs of her clients with those of her family, including her husband and their two sons. She enjoys hiking, reading, cooking, and immersing herself in local history and genealogical research.
